

Special Invite from the Indiana Repertory Theatre to attend “The Whipping Man” by Matthew Lopez

Indiana Repertory Theatre

As the Civil War comes to a bloody close, a Passover Seder in a shattered antebellum mansion reveals hidden truths about the nature of freedom and the frailty of family. Everyone carries scars in this emotionally stirring period drama that binds three men whose world has changed forever. What comes next when the end of bondage brings uncertainty rather than liberty? Find out in this impressive debut from playwright Matthew Lopez.

State of Indiana employees receive 1/2 PRICE TICKETS to any performance during the run

subject to availability*

We encourage you to join us for a special post show discussions on 3/15, 3/10 (2pm), 3/22, 3/17 with IRT Artistic Staff and community leaders.

To reserve your tickets contact Daniel Hoffman Marketing Associate of Group and Community Outreach at 317.916.4836
or dhoffman@irtlive.com

140 W. Washington St—Indianapolis—IN—46204—www.irtlive.com—317.635.5252